Explanation on adoption of the practice	:	The Board size of the Company is small which only consists of three (3) Independent Directors, thus the Company does not have a separate committee for risk management. The function of risk management is however been absorbed by the Audit Committee.

Intended Outcome

Companies have an effective governance, risk management and internal control framework and stakeholders are able to assess the effectiveness of such a framework.

Practice 10.1

The Audit Committee should ensure that the internal audit function is effective and able to function independently.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Audit Committee is responsible for to review the adequacy of the internal audit scope and plan, and the findings identified by the internal audit function. The internal audit function is outsourced to Crowe Horwarth Consultants Sdn. Bhd. which reports directly to the Audit Committee. The scope of work covered by the internal audit function is determined by the Audit Committee after careful consideration and discussion of the audit plan with the Board. Observations from internal audits were presented to the Audit Committee together with management's response and proposed action plans for its review. The action plans were then followed up during subsequent internal audits with implementation status reported to the Audit Committee.
